

DEPARTMENT OF ARABIC LANGUAGE

INTENSIVE DIPLOMA PROGRAM IN ARABIC LANGUAGE & SCIENCES

DARAJAT

Program Overview: A foundational intensive program designed to strengthen language proficiency across grammar, morphology, rhetoric, expression, and other Arabic linguistic sciences. It aims to enable students to achieve a better comprehension of Islamic legal (Sharia) and literary texts, while enhancing overall oral and written performance. Delivered via distance learning through an interactive curriculum emphasizing practical application and dedicated follow-up.

VISION

Leadership in teaching the Arabic language to educators and teachers.

MISSION

Preserving identity by maintaining the Arabic language —the language of the Holy Qur'an—across generations and age groups.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- Teach essential Arabic language fundamentals (reading, writing, grammar, rhetoric, and morphology) that every learner requires.
- Prepare qualified cadres with sufficient knowledge and competence to work in various Arabic language fields, including teaching, planning, and academic development.
- Enable students to read the Holy Qur'an correctly, completely free from major errors in recitation (Lahn Jali).

KEY PROGRAM FEATURES

- Solid Foundational Curriculum: Built upon authentic Arabic rules in grammar, morphology, rhetoric, and composition.
- Intensive 3-Year Track: Focused progression emphasizing practical linguistic application and core skills.
- Interactive Distance Learning: High-engagement methodology guided by specialized and competent faculty.
- Expression Focus: Dedicated care given to developing both oral and written expression skills.
- Textual Comprehension: Equips students with key tools to understand Islamic legal and literary texts, qualifying them for advanced academic pursuits.
- Motivating Academic Environment: Blends rigorous scholarly discipline with a supportive fellowship among students.

EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Acquisition of linguistic aptitude enabling direct comprehension of Arabic and Islamic texts without relying on translation or simplification.
- Mastery of essential grammatical and morphological structures needed to analyze sentences and ensure accurate language usage.
- Enhanced oral and written expression skills, allowing clear, eloquent, and structurally sound communication.
- Ability to interpret ancient and modern literary and rhetorical texts, extracting nuanced meanings and connotations.
- Proficiency in orthography (spelling) and punctuation rules for proper contemporary writing.
- Full preparation to pursue advanced studies in Islamic legal sciences in authentic Arabic without linguistic barriers.

ACADEMIC STUDY PLAN (3-YEAR PROGRAM)

Year 1 Courses

| Course Code | Course Title                           | Type       | Credit Units |
|-------------|----------------------------------------|------------|--------------|
| DA. 100     | Prior Learning - Terms and Definitions | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 105     | Grammar (1)                            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 110     | Grammar (2)                            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 115     | Grammar (3)                            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 120     | Morphology (1)                         | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 125     | Morphology (2)                         | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 130     | Morphology (3)                         | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 135     | Learning and Teaching Skills           | Compulsory | 3            |

Year 2 Courses

| Course Code | Course Title                   | Type       | Credit Units |
|-------------|--------------------------------|------------|--------------|
| DA. 200     | Scientific Research Methods    | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 205     | Arabic Rhetoric (1)            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 210     | Arabic Rhetoric (2)            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 215     | Literary Criticism             | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 220     | Methods of Teaching Arabic (1) | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 225     | Appreciation of Literary Arts  | Compulsory | 3            |

Year 3 Courses & Graduation Project

| Course Code | Course Title                           | Type       | Credit Units |
|-------------|----------------------------------------|------------|--------------|
| DA. 300     | Linguistics and Phonetics              | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 305     | Prosody (Arud)                         | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 310     | Rules of Composition and Essay Writing | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 315     | Fundamentals of Arabic Orthography     | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 320     | Public Speaking and Oratory            | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 325     | Methods of Teaching Arabic (2)         | Compulsory | 3            |
| DA. 395     | Graduation Project                     | Compulsory | 6            |

Other Periodical Electives

| Code    | Status / Schedule             |
|---------|-------------------------------|
| DA. 355 | To be determined as announced |
| DA. 360 | To be determined as announced |
| DA. 365 | To be determined as announced |

Program Credit Summary

| Category                          | Courses           |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------|
| Arabic Language & Science Courses | 20                |
| Graduation Project                | 2                 |
| Total Required Units       | 22 Courses |